Contest For The Governorship By McDaniel Dropped

Action In Midst Of Recount As Donnell Gains

JEFFERSON CITY, May 21—(AP)—Lawrence McDaniel tucked two boxes of new stationery under his arm this afternoon and left for St. Louis. The letter heads read: "Lawrence McDaniel, attorney-at-law."

JEFFERSON CITY, May 21—(AP)—Democrat Lawrence McDaniel abandoned his fight for the governorship today "convinced that Gov. Forrest C. Donnell was elected" last November.

The portly St. Louisan sent a letter to the legislature's contest committee dismissing the bulky petition through which he attacked Donnell's 3,613-vote official majority.

"I confess freely and frankly that the ballot boxes opened in Missouri in the gubernatorial contest to date have convinced me beyond question of doubt that Gov. Forrest C. Donnell was elected," McDaniel wrote.

"According to I herewith extend to him my warmest personal congratulations and assurances of my sincere and active co-operation in any and all things looking toward a greater and more prosperous Missouri. Accordingly I herewith respectfully petition you to take the proper steps to have the general assembly dismiss the petition which I filed March 4 last."

The sudden denouement of the contest which broke across the legislature five months ago came in the midst of a state-wide recount of the governorship ballots—a recount which showed a steady pickup for Donnell in most counties.

Sends Donnell Message
McDaniel sent the following telegram to Donnell:

"I have requested the state legislature to terminate the gubernatorial contest and I congratulate you and extend my sincere wishes for a successful administration. As a citizen I offer my services in any matter for the advancement of the great state of Missouri which I love dearly."

He said he would leave by automobile for St. Louis in mid-afternoon. He will address a banquet there tonight.

Have Joint Session
A joint session of the general assembly will be called late this afternoon or tonight to put the contest to an end.

The contest committee to which McDaniel's letter was addressed, will meet later today to clear the way for the joint assembly.

McDaniel gave up the contest while officials in some counties still were ticking off November votes looking for the frauds and errors Democratic investigators said would be found in almost every precinct of the state. The contest committee will send them instructions to abandon the job.

Busy When Advised
Governor Donnell greeted news of McDaniel's action with: "I'm in conference and I'm just too busy to give the matter any thought."

McDaniel's letter conceded that his fight for the governorship was based on "greatly exaggerated" reports of voting irregularities. The evidence behind the contest was gathered by a corps of investigators working with Democratic State Chairman C. M. Hulen of Moberly.

"I received information from varied sources that in virtually every precinct of the state a large number of votes had been counted for my opponent to which

Red Cross Has Yarn For Shawls
Yarn to be crocheted into 80 shawls, the first supplies for the new Red Cross knitting quota, has arrived and volunteers who are interested in making the shawls may obtain the yarn from Mrs. Harold Dean, chairman, or from Mrs. D. Kelly Scruton, co-chairman.

Three finished afghans turned in to the Red Cross office aroused special commend for the beautiful way in which they were made. Two were from the CYC girls of St. Patrick's church and the third was fashioned by Mrs. Walter D. Agee. It was said that any of the three would take first prize at a state fair.

There are six more afghans out, and there is yarn on hand for two more to be made. Anyone wishing to work on them through the summer months is asked to make arrangements to get the yarn.

All Summer Fight On Tax Bill Predicted

No Lengthy Recess While Convoy Issue Hangs In Air

WASHINGTON, May 21—(AP)—Twin objectives arose today against a summer recess for congress.

Anti-convoy senators said they would demand that their colleagues stay on the job to keep an eye on turbulent world affairs.

House tax experts declared months would be required to complete legislative action on the administration's $3,500,000 tax bill.

Senator Nye (R-Ind), an outspoken opponent of intervention, said he would oppose any suggestion that congress quit for more than three days at a time for fear of developments which might bring this country nearer to war.

"We can't afford to go away and leave the convoy issue hanging in the air," Nye declared.

He said he and others hoped to obtain action later — after President Roosevelt makes his views known — on a resolution by Senator Tobey (R-NH) to prohibit use of the navy to guard war shipments to belligerents.

No Lengthy Recess
Senator McNary of Oregon, the minority leader, also was understood to have told administration lieutenants that he could not agree to any lengthy recess.

On the other hand, Senator Glass (D-Va) told reporters that if he had his way the convoy question would be solved quickly by employing the entire navy, if necessary, to see that the goods were delivered to Britain.

With regard to the tax situation, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the house ways and means committee made one of the most optimistic house forecasts when he expressed belief that it would be "at least a month" from now before his committee finishes writing the measure.

That would be near the end of June. It would require a week or more for the house to pass the legislation and then senate committee and senate action would have to follow. After that differences between house and senate would have to be composed before the bill went to President Roosevelt.

Senator Clark (D-Mo) forecast that "We'll have the tax bill with us all summer."

Members of the house ways and means committee generally agreed that the treasury's excess profits tax plan, which eliminates the so-called average earnings method of computing untaxable excess profits credits, would prolong discussion.

The treasury is the chief advocate of the invested capital plan, which it claims would capture more defense profits than the average earnings method, originally proposed by the joint congressional committee on taxation.

Behrman, St. Charles; Robert Guion, St. Louis; Alfred L. Schulte, Washington; and Leo Hayos, Marshall.

"Not Divulge Information"
BERLIN, May 21—(AP)—German military authorities will make sure that American ambulance drivers cannot divulge any military information to the United States or Britain, authorized sources declared today. This came in response to the question whether the Americans captured in the sinking of the Egyptian liner Zamzam would be released soon.

Donald Heath, first secretary of the United States embassy who called at the foreign office today, was understood to have received official assurances of the Americans' safety and to have been told that arrangements would be made for them to be visited by an American consular official.

Speedy release of the 140 Americans taken off the Zamzam before she was sunk in the South Atlantic by a Nazi warship previously had been forecast by an authorized German spokesman.

This source said it was expected that the Americans — declared to be safe at the German-occupied French port of St. Jean de Luz —

Ship Survivors Safe In France

Americans From Zamzam To Be Returned Home

VICHY, France, May 21—(AP)—American authorities were notified by the Germans today that 140 American survivors of the raider-sunk Egyptian steamer Zamzam had been landed safely in St. Jean de Luz, France.

American Consul Henry S. Waterman left Bordeaux immediately for St. Jean, De Luz, in the German-occupied strip of west coast France near the Spanish frontier.

He was notified by German naval authorities at Bordeaux that the Americans consisted by 62 men, 53 women and 25 children.

(Previously it had been reported there were only 138 Americans on the ship en route from New York and Recife (Pernambuco) Brazil for Cape Town and Alexandria.)

(Dispatches from Berlin said a German spokesman predicted the Americans would be released as soon as possible so they could return home by way of neutral ports.)

The Egyptian minister at Vichy said it had been reported but not confirmed that the Zamzam's crew was landed at St. Jean De Luz along with the American passengers. The legation said it was not informed what had happened to the other passengers.

Clarence Niederhelm, charged with forgery, received a six-year prison sentence from Judge Sam C. Blair in the Cole county circuit court at Jefferson City.

The sentence was the stiffest meted out by Judge Blair in the day-long session which opened a week of hearings in the Cole county court.

Niederhelm's sentence will begin after he has served the remainder of a term on which he received a parole. The defendant was taken into custody by Pettis county police officers last year but escaped from the Pettis county jail on New Year's day and fled to Washington, Mo., where he was arrested for local police.

Nazi Equipment 'Across Turkey'
VICHY, May 21—(AP)—Diplomatic sources said today they had been informed that German military equipment is rolling across Turkey into Iraq by railroad.

(Istanbul said passenger traffic to Iraq had been stopped.) Reports that Turkey had demanded territorial concessions in Syria from France were, however, denied flatly by the Turkish embassy here.

Katy Officials Visitors
R. C. Trovillion, St. Louis, the freight traffic manager for the M. K. T. railroad, C. A. Reynolds, Parsons, division freight agent and Roy Blackburn, Parsons, traveling freight agent, were in Sedalia today looking after business interests.

Rev. Ralph D. Hult, (above) a Lutheran missionary from Springfield, was aboard the Egyptian liner, Zamzam, reported sunk enroute from New York to Alexandria, Egypt. German sources said that all aboard were safe. Mr. Hult's wife and children were in Springfield.

Protested Bill Killed In House

Measure On Funds To State Offices Down To Defeat

JEFFERSON CITY, May 21—(AP)—The house today killed an $18,400,000 appropriation bill to finance state departments, attacked by the Republican minority leaders as a "reckless waste of funds and a major tragedy in the affairs of the state."

Republicans united against the bill which would have boosted state department funds $7,267,000 above original estimates.

They were joined by a handful of Democrats to beat the huge funding measure by six votes. The vote was 70 to 58 for the bill, six votes short of a constitutional majority.

Rep. F. D. Conrath (D) Lewis county member of the appropriations committee kept the bill alive, however, by opening the way for a later reconsideration of the vote.

The bill, attacked by the Missouri Public Expenditure Survey as a "lavish spending measure," would have ignored budget recommendations of Gov. Forrest C. Donnell and given every state official everything he asked for in the way of tax money for his department.

House Speaker Morris Osburn (D) Shelby county, urged adoption of the legislation because, he said, the departments "need extra funds to operate the tax collection machinery of this state efficiently."

But Rep. Howard Elliott, the Republican leader, denounced it as legislation "utterly disregarding the wishes of the people. There is no justification for its passage."

The Public Expenditure Survey, an organization of taxpayers, centered its economy fire on the bill even before it reached the floor.

Informed that West and Miss Linger, the comely Kansas City blonde whom he followed home from the Kentucky Derby by motorcycle, planned to wed, the Arkansas Lochinvar said:

"I am sure he is a very fine young man. Otherwise Miss Linger would never marry him."

Archer said he had decided against corresponding with Miss Linger after being informed that she was engaged to West, former Stanford University heavyweight boxing champion.

Mary Helen explained she never really met Archer anyway. Closest she came was when he waved from his motorcycle and handed her a note as she drove by with her father.

Warning Of Added Severity In Crete Battle

Shock Troops Are Still Pouring In At Invaded Island

LONDON, May 21—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill warned today that the battle of Crete would continue with "increasing severity" as reliable sources declared air-borne Nazi shock troops were still pouring into the invaded Greek island.

The latest total of the German invasion force made known in London—and unofficially—was 4,500 men.

The Germans were delivered by aerial transports and sailed in by glider and parachute, the prime minister informed the House of Commons, bringing forward the running account he gave it with first news of the invasion yesterday.

He told of a second assault on Suda bay which, although available only to shallow draft vessels, is Crete's best anchorage.

Canea, the island capital to which King George II of Nazi-occupied Greece has shifted his government, is less than five miles from Suda bay. On the northwest corner of the island, it is closest to the southern Greek airdromes from which the Germans are launching their sustained aerial invasion attempt.

"In the Suda bay area," Churchill said, "further air-borne attacks commenced at half past four p. m. yesterday."

"About 3,000 men were dropped and by six thirty p. m. the greater part of these had been accounted for."

House In Cheers
The House broke into cheers and Churchill went on:

"The fighting continued and the situation was reported in hand at nine o'clock."

"The method of the attack was Stukas and Messerschmitts followed by gliders and parachutes."

"In the Heracleion (Candia) and Retimo areas, the attacks began at half-past five by parachutes and troop-carrying aircraft, many of which crashed, also landed."

"There are no details yet. Of course, we must expect that the fighting will continue in increasing severity."

In Cairo, the middle east command said German parachute and air-borne troops had suffered "serious losses" and that one detachment which penetrated the outskirts of Canea yesterday was "quickly surrounded and accounted for."

Churchill, answering a question, reiterated his statement of yesterday that the first German parachutists wore New Zealand battle dress and added that the government also had been informed that some Nazi aerialists were in the battle uniforms of English Tommies.

As to whether such prisoners would be put to death on the spot as spies, Churchill said he was "not sufficiently informed on the exact circumstances." The Germans have denied their forces used New Zealand uniforms.

"We must leave a certain amount of discretion to those on the spot," the prime minister added.

Vichy Regime Asked As To Its Future Aims

Sternly Worded Explanation Given To Ambassador

VICHY, France, May 21—(AP)—United States and other members of the foreign diplomatic corps received word today from their respective embassies and legations in Berlin that they would have to withdraw their representatives from Paris by June 10.

The order was said to have emanated from the Wilhelmstrasse and to have been handed to foreign ambassadors and ministers in Berlin.

WASHINGTON, May 21—(AP)—The United States, it was learned authoritatively today, has made the equivalent of a diplomatic call on the Vichy government for a forthright declaration of France's future intentions in "collaborating" with Germany.

Vichy has been given to understand, it was said, that it cannot hope to restore Franco-American relations of harmony unless it is first prepared to supply full assurances in writing that France will hold rigidly to the terms of the June, 1940 armistice in all subsequent dealings with the third reich.

Secretary Hull's sternly-worded explanation of U. S. views to French Ambassador Henry-Haye contained the diplomatic cue, informal sources asserted, that

Germans Gain A Foothold On A Part Of Island

By The Associated Press
Thousands of German aerial invaders swarmed down anew on the 160-mile-long Isle of Crete today and a London radio broadcast indicated that Nazi parachute and glider troops had gained at least a temporary foothold on part of the island.

The British acknowledged that the battle for the strategic Greek island, legendary birthplace of Zeus, was growing fiercer.

A new host of 3,000 German sky troops were reported to have descended on the island during the night after the entire first day's contingent of 1,500 was declared to have been captured or killed.

London dispatches said the Germans were still pouring in.

A British radio broadcast said "one or two" German naval transports may also have gotten through, but the announcer asserted that "there is no lack of control of very large areas of the island, although parachute troops may be fighting in groups at various points."

Large Numbers Captured
The announcer said there was reason to believe that large numbers of Germans were captured alive.

"The situation is well in hand," the British said tersely.

Authoritative quarters in London said a full German parachute division of 7,000 men was involved in the 2-day-old assault—including two infantry regiments, an artillery regiment armed with 75 millimeter guns, an anti-tank battalion with 37 mm. guns, a motorcycle reconnaissance group and other units.

Striking from Greek mainland bases, 75 to 100 miles away, Hitler's "men from Mars" were said to be using a fleet of 250 huge new Focke-Wulf air transports carrying 50 to 75 men each, and an undisclosed number of gliders.

So far, there were no reports that the Germans had landed airborne tanks on Crete—a feat first exploited by Soviet Russia in the Balkans.

"Fight To Death"
Defending the island, the government seat of King George II and a British naval stronghold, were said to be two full Greek divisions and large numbers of British Imperial troops under orders to fight "to the death with no thought of retirement."

British reports said the Nazi gliders were cut loose from towing

Battle For Crete Intensifies As More Sky Troops Land

planes at a great height, many miles away from their objectives, and coasted in among the Grecian isle's olive groves and mountains without the tell-tale drone of motors.

Some troop-carrying planes were reported shot down. In Berlin, authorized quarters angrily denied Prime Minister Winston Churchill's assertion that 1,500 Nazi 'chutists' disguised in New Zealand battle-dress engaged in the initial assault.

The Germans said Churchill's remark was "infamous," and threatened that any brutal or illegal treatment of Nazi 'chutists' would bring stern reprisals.

The London radio broadcast a warning that "whoever, in violation of international law, fights in an enemy uniform, must expect to be shot at once when taken prisoner."

Satisfied In Progress

A Berlin spokesman expressed satisfaction with the progress of the attack—possibly a rehearsal to invade England—and asserted that Hitler long-heralded attempt for King George II has not already fled Crete "you can be sure he's ready to jump."

Previously, the King was said to have rejected pleas by his ministers that he leave the siege-battered island.

The British reported that German naval units tried to land troops at the western end of the island and in the Candia region. It was not disclosed whether the attempts were successful.

Amid the dramatic struggle for Crete, the Germans notified United States authorities in Vichy that 140 American survivors of the Egyptian steamer Zamzam, sunk by a Nazi sea raider, have been landed safely in St. Jean De Luz, France.

The group included 62 men, 53 women and 25 children.

Dispatches from Berlin said a German spokesman predicted the Americans would be released as soon as possible so they could return home via neutral ports. An official announcement said all 322 passengers and crew aboard the Zamzam had been saved.

Stream Out of Syria

In the middle east war theater, British and American citizens were reported streaming out of French-ruled Syria.

Reports from Jerusalem said more Nazi planes had arrived at the Syrian airports of Damascus and Palmyra and that British and "Free French" warplanes again attacked both fields.

In neighboring Iraq, a Baghdad communique declared that heavy losses were inflicted on the British by Iraq troops in attacks on the British air base at Habbaniyah, crossed the Euphrates river and captured the village of Fallujah, 40 miles from Baghdad.

In the air war of the west, bad weather forced a continuance of the lull in night attacks by both sides. Only sporadic bombings were reported.

In Washington it was reported authoritatively that the United States virtually has called upon Vichy for a forthright declaration of France's intentions in collaborating with Germany. It was said the French government has been given to understand there could be no restoration of French-American relations to harmony until Vichy sent formal assurances that France would hold firmly to the terms of her armistice in dealing with the Reich.

Term Action "Daring"

BERLIN, May 21.—(AP)—German air-borne troops which landed yesterday in Crete have occupied several points of strategic, tactical importance, an authorized spokesman reported today.

Parachutists landed in clusters near spots they had been directed to occupy, the spokesman said—this after heavy attacks on the defense positions by the Luftwaffe's dive bombers.

The spokesman called the action "daring." He emphasized that there still was no official German announcement on the assault nor was there any authorized specific summarization of the results of the invasion.

It was said a communique probably would be forthcoming this evening. Authorized quarters previously had expressed satisfaction with the progress of their over-water assault on the Greek island.

BERLIN, May 21.—(AP)—A British naval unit west of Crete was attacked this morning by German warplanes and a "direct hit with the heaviest caliber bomb" was scored on a cruiser, DNB, official German news agency reported tonight.

CAIRO, Egypt, May 21.—(AP)—A detachment of German air-borne troops penetrated the outskirts of Cana, Crete's capital, in the aerial invasion started yesterday but the attackers were "quickly surrounded and accounted for," the British Middle East command said today.

All the German invaders—reaching the Greek island by transport planes, gliders and parachutes—suffered yesterday what the daily communique termed "serious losses."

Thousand Casualties

CAIRO, May 21.—(AP)—It was estimated unofficially tonight at this middle east British headquarters city that the Germans had at least 1,000 casualties in parachutists killed or wounded during yesterday's first operations in their air-borne invasion of would be permitted to leave shortly for neutral countries.

"It is a publicly known fact that the American patrolling system has for its chief purpose that of reporting on anything that might be of service to the British," authorized sources later observed.

"It must be assumed that the ambulance drivers pledged to General de Gaulle have a similar assignment.

"Hence it is only logical that before releasing the Americans, our military must assure itself that these internees can reveal nothing of value.

"It may also be assumed that if American diplomatic representatives should put forward a request to visit these interned Americans, it can be granted, if at all, only in the presence of German representatives who will sternly watch that no military information is divulged."

Halted By Warship

Elaborating previous meager reports of the sinking, the German foreign office mouthpiece, the Deutsche Diplomatisch-Politische Korrespondenz, said the Zamzam was halted for investigation on the high seas by a Nazi warship.

This investigation, the German declared, disclosed that the vessel was carrying large quantities of war material consigned to the "Free French" forces of General Charles de Gaulle, including a considerable quantity of munitions and a variety of machines, among them trucks and automobiles.

The Nazi warship, they said, therefore acted in accordance with international law in sinking the Zamzam after removing her passengers and crew.

Germans said it was considered questionable, however, whether it was proper for non-combatant Americans to travel on a ship carrying contraband.

Those taken from the Zamzam were said to have been transferred later from the warship to a merchant vessel which took them to France.

Permission To Leave

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—The state department was advised today that German naval authorities would permit American survivors from the sunken freighter Zamzam to leave France.

The report came through Vichy, France, from Henry S. Waterman, American consul at Bordeaux, before he left for St. Jean De Luz where the 140 Americans were taken by the Germans.

Waterman's report said that "German naval authorities have no objection American survivors leaving via Spain, Portugal."

Waterman said he was leaving Bordeaux immediately for the place where the Americans were held and would report fully after his arrival there.

Inquest Be Held In Fatal Accident

PLATTSBURG, Mo., May 21.—(AP)—Platte county Coroner W. B. Spaulding said an inquest would be held into the death of Clyde R. Compton, 16-year-old Stewartsville farm hand, in an automobile collision today.

Compton died 15 minutes after a car he was driving and a machine driven by James Chowning of Lathrop, Mo., collided at a miles north of here, the coroner state highway intersection 10 said. Showing was not hurt.

It provides that industrial firms be given full credit on corporation income taxes for all salaries paid lies their self-advertised story of fair play and square-dealing." This appeal to the public, he added, was a "wail and last croak x x x of a feudal mind appealing for continued domination of all they can survey."

Contract Rejected

The southern group, rejecting the contract formally approved yesterday by northern Appalachian operators, said the contract would make Lewis so powerful that by controlling the country's entire soft coal production he would have a "death grip" upon every vital defense industry.

The southerners said the chief reason they refused to accept the agreement was this:

"By the very words of that contract, John L. Lewis will become what so many believe he wants to be—dictator of this country. A man potentially more powerful by far than the president of the United States. A man who holds in the palm of his hand the life or death of every industry, the success or failure of our entire defense program, the comfort or hardship of the bulk of our citizens."

They appealed to citizens to carry their fight to Congress, governors, President Roosevelt and federal agencies.

"John L. Lewis is no fool," the advertisement said. "While America slept, he has craftily gained a death-grip on the one industry which affects the destinies of all others. Now he is apparently using that death grip to shoot for the dictator's crown."

The advertising campaign, launched in 12 eastern, southern and midwestern cities, followed attacks upon the southern operators by Lewis and Charles O'Neill, New York coal executive and spokesman for northern operators in the Appalachian joint wage scale conference which traditionally has set wage and working standards for the entire country.

The southerners broke from the conference last month when they found negotiations unsatisfactory and contract terms unacceptable.

Vichy Regime Is Asked As To Its Future Aims

formal note, putting France on record, was the only solution.

The uncertainty over French intentions meanwhile increased overnight with the news from Martinique that the French cruiser Emile Bertin and the aircraft carrier Bearn had been out to sea for what the commanding admiral called "routine exercises." The officer was quoted as saying that no real preparations for the ships' departure were being made.

Slow To Accept

As far as is known here, this was the first time the vessels have ventured out of port since they berthed at the French colony in the Caribbean when France fell last year.

Informed sources were slow to accept the Martinique explanation that the purpose, in part, was to keep up the morale of the crews.

One theory advanced was that the "exercises" constituted a veiled warning to the United States that the warships were ready to resist any attempt to make the island a hemisphere protectorate, should the course of Franco-German "collaboration" so warrant.

Another conjecture was that the ships were making ready for a dash through the British blockade for some French base in Europe or north Africa. Such an attempt, it was said, would pose a difficult problem for the United States, for this country is unsympathetic to the thought of the two ships eventually finding their way into axis hands.

Wood Slated To Again Head AFL

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 21.—(AP)

—Delegates to the Golden Jubilee convention of the American Federation of Labor went on record here today in favor of amalgamation of the American Federation of Labor and the C. I. O. "in order to solidify the rise of labor and to restore complete public confidence in the American labor movement."

The group voted to express to Secretary of Labor Perkins their appreciation of the manner in which she has conducted her duties as a cabinet officer and expressed thanks to the many labor unions for the small amount of time lost on defense projects due to strikes.

The election was to be held this afternoon and R. T. Wood of Springfield was expected to be re-elected to serve his twenty-ninth year as president, Frank J. Murphy of Kansas City was slated for his ninth year as secretary-treasurer. The delegates voted to raise the salary of each of the officers from $3,900 to $5,200 per year plus expenses incurred in connection with the offices.

Selectees To Fort Wood

FORT LEONARD WOOD, Mo., May 21.—(AP)—One thousand selectees from various midwestern reservations reached this seventh corps area training camp today in a continuation of major troop movements expected to boost the cantonment's population to 13,000 by the end of the week.

Traveling by train and truck the selectees followed closely on the heels of an army of 1,800 regulars and volunteers whose arrival from Fort Leavenworth, Kas., yesterday progressed so smoothly their action might have been a closely guarded military secret.

Only reception accorded the veterans was a hot one by the weather. A broiling sun sent temperatures into the upper 80's and a terrific dust cloud shrouded the lumbering caravan after it left the main highway.

There was considerable scanning of the hillsides as most of the men beheld the colorful Ozarka for the first time.

A note of disappointment came from a Kansas volunteer assigned to a ground cleaning crew.

"I thought they would have all this done when we got here," he muttered as he carried an armload of sticks and building scraps to a trash burner.

Today's arrivals brought the number in camp to 9,000 and the authorities estimated the total would approach 31,000 by July 1.

Increases Sales In Defense Stamps

KANSAS CITY, May 21.—(AP)—Sales of the defense saving bonds in the tenth federal reserve district in the first 20 days of the campaign were reported by John Phillips, Jr., assistant cashier of the bank, as $11,213,550.

"It appears," he said "the sales campaign is really getting under way now."

Dan M. Nee collector of internal revenue and Missouri director of the drive, said reports from postmasters over the state indicate "a steady increase in the sales."

Three Plays Given At S. C. Assembly

Two musical numbers were also presented by the junior orchestra.

Contest For The Governorship By McDaniel Dropped

I was justly entitled, and a large number of additional ballots had not been counted for either of us, to which I was entitled," McDaniel wrote.

"These reports were 'greatly exaggerated'."

First Contest Squelched

Hulen left Jefferson City shortly after the state supreme court ended the first gubernatorial contest—a contest not filed under McDaniel's name. That contest was based on a plan to keep Donnell out of office until his 3,613-vote majority could be investigated by a Democrat-controlled legislative committee. Donnell's inauguration was delayed six weeks, until the supreme court outlawed the plan.

Subsequently McDaniel filed his formal contest.

"In filing the contest I acted in good faith and for the sole purpose of determining just who had been legally elected governor," McDaniel said today.

"I thought that both my opponent and myself were entitled to this information, and I know that the people of Missouri were. No one could tell what was in the ballot boxes until they had been opened. In every town, city and county of the state there existed in the minds of thousands of our citizenry a serious question of doubt as to just who had been legally chosen."

"Only a contest could remove this doubt."

The St. Louisian expressed thanks to the general assembly, "and to the thousands of loyal Democratic voters who have given their enthusiastic assistance and loyal support in my primary and election campaigns and in the contest now ending. x x x"

"We have pursued an honest and honorable course, have no complaints to voice nor grudges to fatten."

Thus ended one of the most dramatic political fights in Missouri's history.

The portly Democrat conferred with Sen. Phil M. Donnelly (D) Lebanon, chairman of the legislature's contest committee, and made arrangements to send a letter to the legislature authorizing the dismissal of the petition by which he contested Gov. Forrest C. Donnell's 3,613-vote majority.

That letter will open the way for a joint session of the assembly to dismiss the contest it authorized early in March. The contest committee will send notices to counties where the canvass of votes has not been completed instructing them to abandon that job.

Reports Fight To End

Reports that McDaniel was about to quit his fight for the governorship circulated the capitol last night.

McDaniel himself refused to confirm or deny the report which whipped around the capitol's political corners last night and today. He evinced no surprise, however, when reporters told him the rumor was in general circulation.

Talk that the five-months' old contest was about to be put to death was common gossip among several Democrats who have been active in its behalf. One of them, who withheld his identity from publication, said:

"Such a conclusion is not unreasonable—although the time element is just a guess."

Another source said the rotund St. Louis Democrat was preparing a communication to the general assembly asking permission to withdraw the bulky contest petition he filed March 4 charging that Donnell's 3,613-vote majority was the product of election frauds and irregularities.

In that petition McDaniel said a recount of November's votes would show him the actual winner by upwards of 30,000 votes.

Steady Donnell Gain

But the recount in 81 counties and St. Louis city completed so far, has shown a steady gain for Donnell. Results in those counties indicated a vote pickup of about 4,000 for the Republican.

GOP leaders claimed 1,800 votes gained in St. Louis alone—and Democrats conceded 1,500.

Ever since the month-old recount first began to indicate gains for Donnell reports have been current that some action would be taken to end the contest which has overshadowed the entire 61st general assembly.

Three weeks ago several Democratic senators prepared a resolution asking dismissal of the contest. But before it could be introduced McDaniel issued his only statement of his fight for office—a statement in which he declared himself in the contest "to the finish."

At the time McDaniel accused Republican politicians of deliberately blocking the recount in the strong GOP sections, counties where he said he would rack up substantial gains. The following week several Republican counties completed the retabulation of their vote, however, and showed a lengthening Donnell margin.

St. Louis county—heart of McDaniel's claim that he was deprived of office by fraud and error—rocked along with its recount far behind the pace in other sections of the state. The retabulation there was only well underway and Republicans claimed new ground even in that populous GOP stronghold.

McDaniel filed his contest petition in person early in March after the supreme court outlawed an earlier legislative attempt to keep Donnell out of office until his slim margin could be investigated by a Democrat-controlled contest committee. The court held Donnell was entitled to the office on the strength of his 3,613-vote margin on the official returns, and ordered him seated immediately.

Protested Bill Killed In House

ective officials—denounced by the Missouri public expenditure survey as a "lavish spending measure."

"This bill should not pass. It should be defeated and a new bill providing appropriations at the proper level introduced," said a letter from the taxpayers' organization to all members of the general assembly.

The survey's economy call reached house members' desks as they were ready for final action on the funding bill—boosted $7,267,000 over its original total by a driving Democratic majority determined to give the elective officials all they asked. The increases were made when the measure came up for perfection last week.

Proposed Allotment

As perfected, the bill carried $91,860 for the governor compared with 1939-40 expenditures of $92,590; $1,845,550 for the secretary of state compared with $1,489,235 spent during the last biennium; $2,192,500 for the state auditor compared with $1,436,109 spent in the past two years; $407,000 for the attorney general compared with $306,897; $9,968,000 for the department of education compared with $2,317,725 spent in 1939-1940.

Most of the additions to the original $11,153,778 bill were in federal funds—in case they should become available for the defense training courses and vocational education. The state's share in the increase totaled $1,767,000, however.

"Taxpayers are faced with responsibility for paying huge new defense taxes," the taxpayer group's letter to the legislators said. "They will have more than ordinary difficulty reconciling a vote for this lavish spending measure."

As originally written, the civil list bill carried $405,000 less than budget recommendations for the 1941-42 period but still fell short of a 9 per cent reduction Gov. Forrest C. Donnell has called for in all departments in order to get Missouri out of the red.

Active Steps For Price Control Near

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—Indications were apparent today that the administration was preparing for active measures to control prices stimulated by vast defense activities.

This was seen as the reason for a White House conference between President Roosevelt and Leon Henderson, head of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, and Wayne Coy, director of the Office of Emergency Management.

Settle Strike On Hudson Company

DETROIT, May 21.—(AP)—A settlement reached this morning of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) strike against the Hudson Motor Car Company, provided for a wage increase of eight cents an hour.

This was disclosed this afternoon, as the workers began voting upon satisfaction of the settlement effected at conferences participated in by James F. Dewey, federal labor conciliator.

Belmont Park Race Taken By Whirlaway

Three-Year-Old 1941 Wonder Horse Steals Show From Mioland

NEW YORK, May 21—(P)—Whirlaway put in a big early bid for the "horse of the year" honors Tuesday by easily whipping Mioland in a race that went down in the books as "Belmont's $50,000 bargain."

Making the first start of his career against older horses, Warren Wright's Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner hit his handicap rivals at the head of the stretch and ran away from them, just as he did with the three-year olds at Churchill Downs and Pimlico.

He did it this time, too, without his "brains" in the saddle. For Eddie Arcaro, the jockey they hired to keep Whacky Whirl running in a straight line in the Derby and Preakness, was riding against him. Little Wendell Eads, who was blamed for the colt's defeats in the Blue Grass stakes and the Derby trial, booted him home just as easily as Eddie.

Proved Speed

It's true that Blenheim's screw son bore out all the way down the stretch, and that he had a good-sized edge in weights over Mioland. But the fact still remains that this three-year-old came from far behind—nearly five lengths back at one time—and just ran past the others.

At the finish, Whirl was two lengths on top, while Mioland barely nosed out Mrs. Payne Whitney's Hash, piloted by Arcaro, for the place honors. Mrs. George D. Widener's Your Chance was fourth and Gus Ring's Ringie last in the five-horse field.

Huge Park Profit

Whirl won the horse race—running the mile and a sixteenth in 1:43.3-5—but the real winner of the show was Belmont Park. For Long Island's beautiful racing plant paid only a total of $2,500 for this attraction and had a surprise field good enough for any $50,000 stake.

Each trainer, particularly Ben Jones for Whirlaway and Tom Smith for Mioland, had meant this waltz strictly as a "conditioner" for future assignments. Whirl may run in Friday's Peter Pan race and definitely will start in the Belmont stakes.

New York Boys Give Basketball Top Spot

NEW YORK, May 21—(P)—Baseball may still be America's favorite game but that no longer goes for New York boys. A poll of nearly 9,000 members of the Children's Aid Society's 10 boys' clubs in the city gave basketball the No. 1 spot.

Baseball, leader in previous year's polls, came in second.

HIS TRIAL OF KruGon PROVED SUCCESSFUL

Aches and Pains have Now Left His body With Proper Elimination; Digestion Is Fine Too

"I am certainly glad that I learned about KruGon and put it to the test for myself," said Mrs. W. A. Burch, Route No. 4, St. Joseph, Missouri. "Faulty elimination seemed to be at the bottom of all my health worries, greatly affecting my digestion and causing me lots of agony. I lost all desire for my food as nothing seemed to taste right for no sooner would I get up from the table than I would be taken with a terrible burning sensation in the pit of my stomach. My heart would palpitate so I would have difficulty in breathing and a hot bitter water would often rise in my throat. I was so nervous I couldn't half sleep, headaches and backaches were distressing too. Then I began KruGon and found it to fit my case as if made for me alone."

"In about five weeks of taking KruGon I was feeling so much better," continued Mrs. Burch. "Now that I am getting proper elimination of those clogged intestinal impurities my appetite has returned and I can eat almost anything I want without the least discomfort afterwards. Those horrible backaches and headaches have been relieved, my nerves are calm, I get plenty of good, sound sleep and my energy is up to par. KruGon's thorough action was a pleasant surprise for me."

KruGon is sold by McFarland and Robinson Drug Co., 104 W. Main St., this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns.

Cash Attraction

"There ain't nothin' wrong with my heart, Doc." Whirlaway, Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner, who beat Mioland yesterday in Belmont's "$50,000 bargain" race. Maybe that woe-begone look is due to the fact that Whirl's favorite jockey was riding against him.

Purse Dangles For Billy Conn

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 21—(P)—Billy Conn, shooting for the moon when he meets Joe Louis in June for the heavyweight title, may bag the biggest purse of his career next Monday night in a home town tuneup fight against Buddy Knox of Dayton, Ohio.

"And boy, do we need that sugar," means Johnny Ray, Billy's manager, "We ain't got a dime."

The cost of living up to the light heavyweight title along with family expenses—Billy provides the best medical care for his ill mother—has drained the Conn exchequer.

"It costs Billy $1,000 a month to live," explained Ray, "and you know me, pal, money was made to spend."

Billy's biggest purse to date was something over $20,000 he received in another home town stand—his successful defense of his light heavyweight title against Melio Bettina.

Other Conn purses include $15,000 for his fight with Bob Pastor, $14,000 in the Lee Savold fight, $10,000 for the Gunnar Barlund date and $12,000 for his return match with Fred Apostoli.

"We'll put $25,000 for our end against Knox," Ray asserted. "The way tickets are going we may even hit $30,000."

Officers of the Dapper Dan club acting as co-promoters of the 15-round Conn-Knox fight, say the advance sale already is near $20,000 and that with a warm night they may sell out Forbes field with a crowd in excess of 40,000.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz

NEW YORK, May 21—(The Special News Service)—If Pacific Coast sports writers have their way, Dick Bartell will be offered the first managerial job to open up out there. . . Frankie Kovacs is telling pals he's going to join the army as soon as he wins the national singles championship. . . Good news: The Giants voluntarily tore up the contracts of Bill Jurgens, Gabby Hartnett and Ace Adams and gave them new ones calling for nice raises. . . Bad news: Henry Armstrong starts that comeback in July.

Washington papers are blasting the district boxing commissioners for not letting a local guy referee the Joe Louis-Buddy Baer bout Friday night. Arthur Donovan will be imported from New York. . . Montana State's 1940 football squad has sent nine men to the national guard, eight to the reserve officers' corps, three to the regular army and two to the air corps . . . # Entire Farm Family Benefits From Electric Water System

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

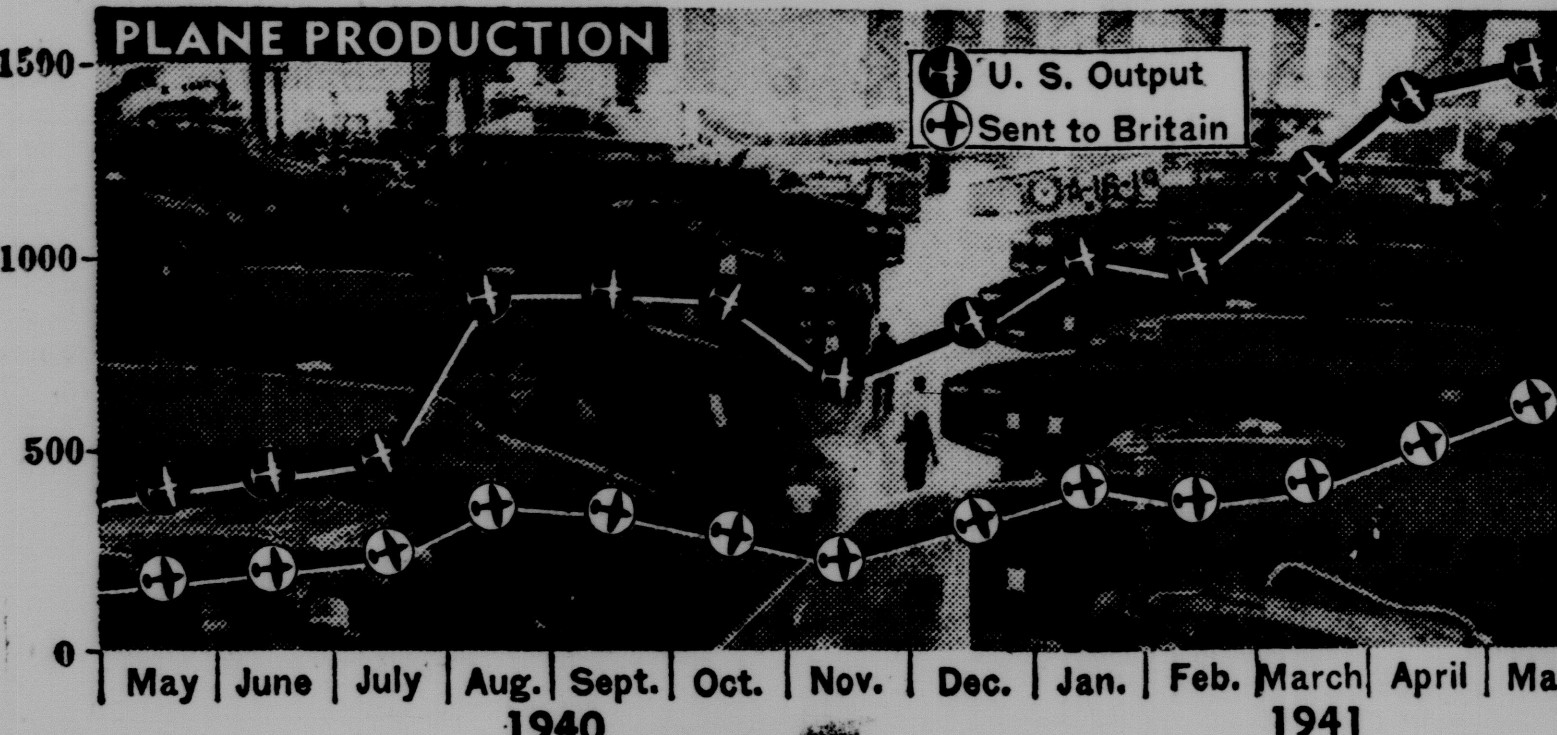

HOW many tons of water did you and your family pump and carry last year to satisfy your needs and those of your stock and garden? A minimum of 20 to 30 tons if you did.

With running water in the house, she saves hours of hard work. did not have an automatic pressure water system; probably none if you did.

Few farmers realize how much time and labor the "hired hands," usually his wife and children, spend in hand pumping water for the kitchen alone—30 eight-hour days and 200,000 steps each year being the average. But, doing it themselves, they should be conscious of the work and discomfort—particularly in bad weather—involving in pumping or hauling water for the livestock and other about-the-farm uses. If few farmers appear to give much thought to the time and labor necessary to hand pump their water supply, even fewer give any consideration to the cost thereof. Were a farmer offered two to five cents a day for his services and those of his family, he would be justly indignant. Yet that is his own valuation if he does not install an electric water system. An automatic electric pressure water system perhaps does more to improve the standard of living on

Louis H. Dahler, farmer near Nashua, Mo., came to Kansas City municipal court aboard his saddle horse, Ozark King, because the truck he had been driving was involved in an accident, necessitating his appearance in court. Now Farmer Dahler had a little difficulty in finding a hitching-rack in downtown Kansas City, so he rode up the steps of the police station to inquire of local officers the nearest location of one to which he could tie the critter while he was in court. They directed him to a nearby vacant lot, the careless driving charge was dismissed, so Dahler and Ozark King rode away happy. (NEA Photo)

FOOD MARKET BASKET

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

One of the newest nutritional warnings is against unbalanced diets in summer—diets deficient in minerals, vitamins and proteins. The body needs its daily supply of these essentials in summer as in winter. Hence, new emphasis is being placed on meat as the centerpiece of summer meals, because it provides all three of these factors.

When planning your Sunday meals for your family, then, you might take advantage of the special prices on many meats being offered this week by one of the largest of the food chains. Broilers and fryers are special values in the poultry departments, and other meat weekend values include ribs, steaks, navel beef, brisket, and many veal and lamb cuts.

Special emphasis, too, must be placed on vegetables as "spring tonics." Offered at low prices this week are carrots, celery, new cabbage, radishes, scallions, spinach, rhubarb and iceberg lettuce.

Especially attractive prices will be found this week on strawberries. Argentine pears and grapes are new in the market this week, and are reasonably low.

Marion Rouse Budd, director of the A & P Kitchen, has worked out the following menus as suggestions for next Sunday dinner:

Low Cost Dinner
Mixed Fruit Juices
Braised Pork Chops in Casserole with Green Peppers, Rice and Tomatoes
Asparagus with French Dressing in Lettuce Cups
Bread and Butter
Cream Tapioca with Bananas
Tea or Coffee

Moderate Cost Dinner
Rolled Shoulder of Lamb
Baked Stuffed Egg Plant
Glazed Onions
Lettuce and Tomato Salad
Bread and Butter
Apricot Sherbet
Tea or Coffee

Very Special Dinner
Cantaloupe Balls
Fried Chicken, Southern Style
Buttered String Beans
Browned New Potatoes
Mixed Garden Salad,
French Dressing
Fresh Rolls
Frozen Cream Puffs with Fresh Strawberry Sauce
Tea or Coffee

Among the most attractive week-end specials in vegetables are asparagus, beets, carrots, Florida celery, iceberg lettuce, spinach and potatoes.

Budget priced fruits include apples, bananas, grapefruit, oranges, pineapples and strawberries.

Meat time, meat prices continue at the same levels of the past few weeks and the choice of a Sunday meat should not prove difficult, the following cuts being especially good buys: all cuts of beefsteak, boneless chuck pot roast, lamb chucks and legs, legs and rumps of veal, broilers and fryers, roasting chickens, fowl, turkeys, and ducklings.

Marion Rouse Budd, director of the A & P Kitchen, has worked out the following menus as suggestions to the homemaker who would like a vacation from Sunday dinner planning:

Low Cost Dinner
Chuck Steak with Frenched Carrots and Small Onions
Lettuce Salad
Bread and Butter
Vanilla Pudding with Sliced Oranges
Tea or Coffee

Moderate Cost Dinner
Jellied Consomme
Broiled Sirloin Steak
Parboiled New Potatoes
Spinach
Bran Muffins
Omelette Souffle with Grushed Strawberries
Tea or Coffee

Very Special Dinner
Russian Borscht
Celery Salted Almonds
Frenched Lamb Chops
Macaroni and Cheese
Broccoli Hollandaise
Mixed Green Salad
Fresh Grape Tarts
Tea or Coffee

Asparagus Turnover
Grind or chop fine left-over asparagus or the butt ends. Mix 1 cup ground asparagus with 1 cup seasoned, mashed potatoes. Stir in a beaten egg. Fry as patties or as an omelet, sprinkling with cheese before folding.

Asparagus Vinaigrette
Place several stalks cold, cooked asparagus on lettuce leaves. Pile on the tips sliced egg yolk, chopped egg whites, chopped pickles or olives, and if desired a little chopped pimiento and minced onion. Over all pour French dressing.

Thin White Sauce
(Yield 1 quart)
Two cups whole milk or light cream, scalded, 2 cups asparagus water, heated, 4 tablespoons flour, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon white pepper.
Scald liquid in double boiler. Melt butter slowly in a heavy pot, so it does not brown. Stir in the flour, mixing thoroughly, until perfectly smooth. Cook slowly over a low fire, stirring occasionally, and allow to bubble for several minutes. Remove from stove, and add scalded liquid slowly, stirring constantly. Put back over low heat, and again stir constantly.

FLAKY MEAT ROLLS

FLAKY biscuit dough is one of the most satisfying meat extenders imaginable. Biscuit dough has the gratifying ability to make other and more expensive foods go farther. It carries their flavor, it adds eating pleasure, and now, when Enriched Flour is used, it supplies some of those important B-vitamins and minerals needed for health.

Another point in favor of Flaky Meat Rolls is the ease with which they are made. Just good biscuit dough, rolled out and spread with well-seasoned ground meat is what makes them. The seasoning will vary with the meat. A hint of onion, a dash of horseradish, give a fresh springtime flavor.

Salmon or tuna may take the place of meat for Friday's dinner. Yellow cheese may be used instead of meat or seafood.

Tomato sauce gives that popular "biscuits and gravy" touch that appeals especially to the men. For variety, canned mushroom soup, or any of the other canned cream soups may serve as sauce or gravy.

Fresh green asparagus and golden carrots served with Flaky Meat Rolls make an ideal springtime menu.

FLAKY MEAT ROLLS
2 cups sifted soft wheat flour
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons baking powder
2 to 4 tablespoons shortening
2/3 to 3/4 cup milk

until thick and smooth. Add salt and pepper.

Some new tricks in shortcake are always in order. Try making the biscuits with butter or margarine for extra flavor. Brush the tops with butter or margarine just before the biscuits go into the oven.

2 cups ground meat
1 egg
1/2 cup milk or meat stock
Salt and pepper

Sift flour, salt, and baking powder together. Cut shortening into mixture. Add milk to make a soft dough, stirring just enough to make ingredients hold together. Turn out on lightly floured board, knead gently a half minute. Roll very thin. Brush lightly with butter or margarine. Combine meat, egg, milk, and seasonings and spread over dough. Roll as for jelly roll. Cut in 1 1/2-inch slices. Place cut side down in well-greased baking dish or muffin pans. Brush with melted shortening. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven (375° F.). Serve with Tomato Sauce. Yield: 12 rolls.

TOMATO SAUCE
4 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
2 1/2 cups canned tomatoes
Salt and pepper

Cook butter and onion together until tender. Add flour, stirring constantly. Add other ingredients and simmer until the vegetables are thoroughly cooked. Broth from meat may be added from time to time, and lends a savory flavor to the mixture. Add seasonings and serve hot.

If self-rising flour is used, omit salt and baking powder.

A cheese sandwich, made with Enriched Bread, is a really nutritious meal. Cheese is rich in calcium, phosphorus, and in vitamin B2 (called riboflavin). Enriched Bread provides B1 and nicotinic acid—the other two members of the Big Three of the prolific B-vitamin family.

FOOD MARKET Advice-

ONE has only to stop by a fruit and vegetable stall these days to realize that regardless of weather reports, spring is really here so far as the menu is concerned. Overcoming the handicap of several spells of rain and cold, Florida has at last swung into its production stride and is shipping excellent quantities of beans, tomatoes, peas and strawberries. California asparagus shipments have gained considerably in volume and this state is also sending lots of broccoli, as well as the leaf vegetables and carrots. Texas, too, is making important vegetable contributions.

Among the more attractively priced items among vegetables for the week-end will be, green beans, asparagus, beets, broccoli, new cabbage, carrots, iceberg lettuce, mushrooms, peas, potatoes, spinach and tomatoes.

Particularly good buys in fruits will be apples, pineapples, bananas, oranges, and strawberries. The delicious Florida Valencia orange is beginning to appear on fruit stands and South American fruit shipments continue.

Veal Much Lower—
The homemaker who has been depending to a considerable extent on chickens as a main course to keep the budget within bounds will find a variety of attractively priced meat cuts in the largest of the food chains this week. Veal, which has been a stranger among the specials for many weeks, is being featured this week and other specials are ribs of beef, porterhouse, sirloin and round steaks, chuck steaks and boneless chuck pot roasts, lamb chucks, loins and legs, smoked hams, butts, bacon and turkeys.

Boston reports that good supplies of groundfish are expected this week and large cod and haddock will be the best values in fresh fish. Frozen halibut, salmon and smelts are also very attractively priced.

New York expects larger supplies of yellowtails, butterfish, porgies, sea bass and fluke. In the Baltimore area medium butterfish and both medium and large croakers will be plentiful.

The following menu suggested for Sunday dinner is composed of items which will be attractively priced over the week-end.

Consomme
Sirloin Steak
Fried Potatoes
Frenched Green Beans
Beet Salad
Bread and Butter
Strawberry Short Cake
Tea or Coffee

Three To Make Ready

By W. H. Pears

Copyright 1941, NEA Service, Inc.

YESTERDAY: Tony advises Paula to keep close check on Chris, shows her a note threatening trouble unless his fraternity cancels its farewell. When Chris breaks their date, Paula goes to the party with Tony. A stench bomb is thrown into the house. Tony rushes out, down the steps, then falls to the ground.

A KISS—A PROMISE

CHAPTER IX
PAULA went to her knees at Tony's side, grinding the seagreen formal into the wet grass. She struggled until she rolled him over. His face was bloodless, quiet.

"Tony! Tony!" Paula whispered, shaking him. "Say something, Tony! Are you hurt?"

Then, realizing the absurdity of the question, she fought down her panic and called for help. But already the entire party was streaming into the wet, murky night to escape the fumes of the stench bomb. Hal Bascomb, president of the chapter, took charge.

"Tony's hurt!" he shouted. "Come on, we'll move him to the porch."

"No, don't touch him," Paula commanded, remembering that she had read never to move an injured person. "Call the hospital, get an ambulance."

Gathered in a circle around her, the fraternity boys talked in low tones. Paula heard Hal say:

"Fellows, we know who pulled this dirty stunt. I don't know how you feel about it, but I'm not leaving Cardman until I get a crack at that bunch!"

"We're with you, Hal!"

"All the way, kid!"

"Wait till they hold a meeting!"

In the distance Paula heard the wail of an ambulance siren, and a few moments later the big white car lurched to a stop in front of the house. Tony was lifted inside and Paula followed. Four or five boys clung to the side of the ambulance.

At the hospital they remained downstairs, but Paula waited outside the door while Tony was being examined. Presently a young interne came out and smiled at her.

"Slight concussion," he said. "Nothing to worry about, but we'll want to keep him under observation a day or two."

"M-may I see him?"

"As soon as they get him settled in a room." The interne slipped his hand under her elbow.

"Now suppose you relax before we have to put you to bed, too?"

"I'm all right," Paula murmured, grateful for his support. He opened the door for her and withdrew. Paula was alone with Tony. He lay very still, his eyes closed. A large, purple bruise discolored his forehead.

Paula seated herself on the edge of the bed, taking his hand. Tony shifted his head from side to side, mumbled. Paula bent close to catch his words.

"Don't fret, Tony dear," she soothed, brushing his hair from his eyes. "Just try to rest."

For the first time Tony seemed aware of her presence. His fingers curved around Paula's hand, clung.

"Paulie . . ." he said faintly. "Yes, Tony?"

"Paulie, I—I love you so. I know how you feel about Chris, but . . . I've got to tell you. I've wanted to before . . . I—I didn't have the nerve."

"Oh, Tony . . ."

His name was almost a sob on her lips. Dr. Lud had warned her, of course, but still she was not prepared to hear the confession from Tony's own lips. Her pulses pounded insistently with the sure knowledge of his love.

"W-would you kiss me, Paulie?" Tony mumbled.

Paula bent, pressed her lips against Tony's. She told herself that it was only nerves that made the room whirl. She told herself that it was only to humor a sick man that she kissed him. But when the interne knocked and entered he saw a flushed and lovely Paula.

"Young woman," he said, "we can't keep you here all night."

Paula gave Tony's hand a final squeeze. "Good night, Tony," she said softly. "I'll see you in the morning."

DOWNSTAIRS, the fraternity boys, having received word of Tony's condition, had departed. Paula pulled her wrap tightly about her and prepared to brave the rain.

Outside a tall figure moved from the shadows and came toward her. A cry of alarm sprang to her throat, and then she recognized Chris.

"How is he, Paulie?" Chris asked tightly. "How's Tony?"

Paula said coldly, "He's not badly hurt, Chris."

He fell into step beside her. The rain had stopped momentarily, but Chris, minus a coat, was soaked to the skin.

"Chris," Paula asked, "how did you know Tony was hurt?"

"Why, I . . . I heard it, Paulie. From one of the boys."

"Don't lie to me, Chris!" Paula's voice sharpened. "You wouldn't have dared talk to them tonight. They'd knock anyone down they even thought was connected with the League."

They walked a while without speaking.

Chris said abruptly, "You don't think that I . . ."

"I don't know what to think, Chris. You don't usually lie."

"I'm not lying now, Paulie. I tell you I had nothing to do with Tony's getting hurt. Can't you believe that?"

"How can I, Chris?" she asked shakily. "You broke your date with me. Somehow, you knew right away about Tony's injury. You admitted to me that you had something important to do tonight. Oh, Chris, you're asking too much of me."

"I'm still asking it, Paulie. Will you believe me?"

DEEP in her heart Paula did believe him, but she was too angry, too upset, to admit it. She said, "Weren't you with Kilo tonight?"

"I saw her," Chris admitted. "But—"

"Before or after they broke up the party?"

Paula expected Chris's temper to flare at the question, but he said without resentment, "Both times."

"And yet you had nothing to do with that stench bomb?"

They had reached the Gamma Tau house now. A light burned in the vestibule showing Paula the grim, tight line of Chris's jaw. She waited for his reply, determined this time to believe his denial. But it never came.

Chris said, "Paulie, I wouldn't have had Tony hurt for anything in the world."

"Oh, Chris," Paula cried, "you're all tangled up in lies. Don't you see how serious this can be? If Bill Jenks ever gets hold of the story he'll make a scandal out of it, and Big Barney can march right in and take control of Cardman."

"Tell the truth," Paula begged. "Maybe you have done wrong, but it's not too late to fix things. Won't you get it off your chest, Chris?"

"I—I can't, Paulie," Chris muttered, his gaze fixed on the ground. "Don't ask me why."

"All right, Chris. We've been friends a long time, but I—I guess you don't need me any longer."

"Paulie, wait!" Chris said desperately. "Don't feel like that. Oh, gosh, Paulie, I do need you now . . . more than ever. Stick by me."

The sight of Chris all broken up—carefree, reckless Chris—was more than Paula could stand. She said with a rush of pity and tenderness, "Yes, Chris, I'll stick."
